

Pledge Form

FROM GATEKEEPER TO GATEWAY

The Campaign for Classics in the 21st Century

In support of the American Philological Association's Gatekeeper to Gateway Campaign for Classics in the 21st Century, I/we hereby pledge the sum of _____.

I understand that this gift will be used to match and be expended for the approved purposes of the National Endowment for the Humanities challenge grant, CH-50359, entitled "Endowment for Classics Research and Teaching."

I/we enclose $_____ in partial/full payment on this gift and, if not paid in full, will make additional annual payments directly to the American Philological Association to fulfill the pledge no later than December 31, 2010.

Acknowledgment of Gifts

All gifts are acknowledged in the Association's Newsletter and on the APA website unless the donor checks the box below. However, the Development Committee encourages you to allow your name to be printed and in that way inspire other members to contribute as well.

I wish my gift to remain anonymous.

(For donors of $250 or more) I wish to recognize the name of the following teacher:

(These acknowledgments will appear in the Newsletter as follows: [Name of Donor] in honor of [Name of Teacher].
If you wish us to notify your teacher or his or her family of your gift, please provide a name and address.)

Make your gift online. The APA can now accept gifts electronically through the APA website. Please visit www.apaclassics.org/campaign/campaign.html to make your gift securely and conveniently.

The National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) has endorsed this campaign with an extraordinarily generous Challenge Grant of $650,000. To obtain the full amount, the APA must raise four times this amount by the end of 2010. The APA invites everyone to join this effort by making a pledge to the campaign.
